It was about eleven O'clock at night, dark and she was walking alone, when a boy ran up behind her and tried to snatch her purse. The strap broke with a single sudden tug the boy gave it from behind. But the boy's weight and the weight of the purse combined caused him to lose his balance. Instead of taking off full blast as he had hoped, the boy fell on his back on the side walk and his legs flew up. The large woman simply turned around and kicked him right square in his blue Jeaned sitter.
